

explaining the autism mural

This is a piece of art of the character Prussia from the anime Hetalia

Next, there is an image of Hello Kitty, a cat, a stock photo of a man in the background with a suit and buttons saying to download something on the app store or google play. The reason for this is that I like Hello Kitty and cats. I also like stock photos and men with suits, but I especially like stock photos of men with suits. Finally, I thought the buttons to download something were humorous.

The next set of images are trying to tell a story, but since the overall piece is very cluttered it's hard to catch it. I've done my best to highlight it here.

This is supposed to represent Star Platinum (the Stand of Jojo's Bizarre Adventures famous character, Jotaro) punching an innocent and defenseless kitten. This is also accompanied by the classic clickbait format of misleading youtube thumbnails. These clickbait additions add a twist to the story, because we know that Jotaro from Jojo's Bizarre Adventures is a good guy, and he would never do the actions displayed here, hence why this is clickbait and not an actual occurrence.

In this corner we firstly see some animal like a cow or something idk about animals, a set of alcoholic beverages, some lewd Dragon Ball Z fanart Vegeta licking Goku's nipple and finally, framing everything in place, a chibi representation of Japan from Hetalia.

Idk why the cow thing is there I just thought it looked silly. About the alcohol, I don't like alcohol but I do like the concept of harmful pleasures. I also like the concept of an anime guy licking another anime guy's nipple sensually. And Japan, character from the already mentioned anime Hetalia, is there because I really like dumb gay shitty anime boys like that.

In the background you may also catch: an emoticon of a smiley face with a thumbs up pose, a sprite sheet of Sonic the Hedgehog and a rainbow. Those are there because they visually appeal to me.

Here is another drawing of Japan from Hetalia because I have bad taste in anime. Next to it is an anime avatar I made with an old program that is supposed to represent me. Of course, I look way more cute and kawaii in real life, but this is a close interpretation.

The three next notable pictures are a sad emoji face, that fucking thing that is supposed to be sniper tf2 and an anime character with no arms that uses her feet and legs to function. The first two require no explanation, but that final character is Rin Tezuka. She belongs to Katawa Shoujo, a dating sim where all of the girls are disabled in some kind of way. She's the typical tomboy-ish girl and also an artist, since she has no arms, she uses her feet to paint pictures.

IN the background there is a teddy bear because. Also some fishes, because I love fishes and the ocean. A chart with numbers which I think is a chart about prime numbers? Also a set of adhd medication and a plate of fries. I have adhd and I like fries.

So here there are some lightbulbs, that's because one of my friend's nickname is "bombillita" which means "small lightbulb" in spanish. A bus, because buses are very comedic and a scary ghost. In the background you can maybe see a chicken. I don't think it's a chicken I think it's a cock or whatever they're called

Overlaid there is a low opacity png of Jet The Hawk, which is my favorite sonic character

And finally:

Big lenny face in the middle of it all

Saana 7:39

cop out excuse do it

I did it.
